Language Development Teacher for EYFS and Year 1

Are you an enthusiastic teacher who enjoys working with children?
Are you able to support the distinctive Christian ethos of the school?
Do you have an interest in early language development?

We are looking for a teacher to work for one day per week alongside our EYFS and Year 1 team to support the language development of the children in these phases. The successful applicant will support and complement both teachers and teaching assistants in helping pupils overcome barriers to learning involving language development to ensure that pupils reach their full potential. The role will involve planning for and teaching small groups or individuals.

The post is fixed term beginning as early as possible in November 2020 and running until the end of the Summer term 2021
